Admission to the Major

- Admission to this major is competitive, so your prior academic performance is important. Transfer students must have completed either a Direct Transfer Agreement (DTA) degree or 90 transferable credits by the end of the quarter prior to entry into the nursing program.
- Transfer students must have a minimum 3.5 GPA in the combined prerequisite courses, with no course less than a "C" grade (2.0). A maximum of two courses may be repeated to achieve the minimum grade of 2.0. Apply to Seattle Pacific University at the same time you apply to the nursing program and indicate nursing as your preferred major.
- Applicants must complete all prerequisite courses prior to beginning nursing major coursework.
- Part of the selection process requires applicants to participate in an interview. Applications for the nursing major are available on the School of Health Sciences nursing website:
